Excerpt: . . . own character, his highly polished manners, and the uncommon ability, with which it was known that he executed his important commission, were the chief and sufli-. cient recommendation to the notice and esteem of men, whom it is an honor to know, and who honor the country to which they belong. By such men Mr. Gore was highly esteemed, and received from them constant proofs of regard. When Mr. King, who was our minister at the Court of St. James, returned to this country in 1803, be appointed Mr. Gore charge daffaires, ; and in this station he exhibited the same talent and fidelity, that marked all his other public proceedings. In 1804, Mr. Gore came home, and was received by his fellow citizens with every demonstration of re-. spect and affectionate regard. Upon his return to this country, Mr. Gore resumed the practice of his profession, which he con Note D. tinued with zeal, activity, and success until the year 1809. He was elected to the Senate of this commonwealth for the county of Suffolk, in 1806 and 1807, and the following year he was chosen Representative from the town of Boston. Party politics ran high at this time, and Mr. Gore was a conspicuous member of the Legislature; and, from his distinguished worth and talents, he was naturally placed in the van of the party, whose cause he espoused and most ably maintained. No man was better qualified to take the lead...
