Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .How do you not lose yourself after losing someone you love? Tragedy affects us all during the course of our lives. Failing to respond to tragic moments in a healthy, constructive, and knowledgeable way creates more problems. The book RISE(ING) FROM THE ASHES: TURNING TRAGEDY INTO TRIUMPH will provide solutions. This book documents the inspirational journey MY LOVE and PERRY experienced with their first born son MR. PERRY MALACHI BEASLEY III. It charts multiple struggles, tremendous adversity, and severe calamities along the way. Each chapter concludes with actionable coaching questions/homework that will keep the reader accountable, thinking critically, and interested. This parable-like blog style structure, renders a fresh new way for any reader on any platform to journey with the main characters. While encountering numerous hard lessons learned, helpful knowledge along the way, and multiple positive/progressive takeaways. As you read this incredibly inspirational story you will find yourself relating and sympathizing with their situation, as well as take away some tools for success and best practices. We start with the readers meeting our main characters Perry and My Love at a stage in their lives where despite the troubles and strife they have previously faced, they are in love and ready/willing to continue to face the world together. At this point the couple has a healthy little girl, and are currently expecting another beautiful child that they feel could be a little boy. During a routine check-up to find out the official gender of their second child, the mood changes from jubilation and excitement to sadness and worry after finding out some bad news during that same visit. By using a descriptive writing style, the...
