Triangulate Your Golf Swing (Paperback)

By Ron Celano

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 212 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .How many ways are there to swing a golf club? Golf magazine writers and TV commentators certainly don t have a shortage of golf swings to analyze. So, I suppose we will never know the answer. This all creates a certain amount of confusion for the average golfer who is trying to improve their swing. After years of frustrating golf and countless swing changes, I thought that there must be a simpler way to look at the golf swing. Rather than look at all the differences, I wondered instead if there was something that all good golfers do that the average golfer generally does not. Anyone that is serious about golf certainly needs to learn the fundamentals, but what I was looking for had more to do with what I call The Principles of Triangulation. Although inherent to all good golf swings, these principles are rarely given priority when it comes to golf analysis. I believe they are at the heart of every good golf swing and at the core of every good golf shot. Inside your will...
