Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has developed a comprehensive strategy to combat human trafficking through coordination with domestic and foreign non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and law enforcement agencies in order to identify and provide services to trafficking victims and coordinate investigations. DHS human trafficking strategy is focused on providing a commitment to victim-centered investigations and incorporates a multidisciplinary response. The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) launched the Blue Campaign in February of 2010 - a DHS-wide initiative to combat human trafficking through enhanced public awareness, victim assistance programs, and law enforcement training and initiatives. The Blue Campaign encompasses a wide range of anti-trafficking programs designed to engage the American and global public, the Department s federal, state, local and tribal law enforcement partners, nonprofit and nongovernmental organizations, and governments around the world.2 DHS Blue Campaign strategy is organized around the three Ps of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 20003: Prevention, Protection, and Prosecution. DHS has added a fourth P called Partnership in order to assist the department in operationalizing its strategy, focused on the Trafficking Victim s Protection Act of 2000 (TVPA). The purpose of each P is as follows: 4 Prevention: To prevent human trafficking, the Department conducts public outreach both domestically and abroad. Domestic public outreach helps identify victims of human trafficking by raising general awareness and encouraging the public to report suspected instances of human trafficking; international public outreach raises awareness among potential trafficking victims seeking employment or other opportunities in the United States, who may fall prey to the lures of human traffickers. Protection: To protect victims, the Department provides immigration assistance in the form of Continued Presence, T visas and U visas;...
